Campaign in Support of the Caucasus Emirate

Since the Crusaders launched their brutal war of terror on Afghanistan in October 2001 and Iraq in March 2003 the eyes of the Ummah have moved away from Chechnya and the Caucasus, who have continued to suffer from an assault which at least equals the brutality of the ones launched on Iraq and Afghanistan. The Muslim media outlets in general - and the Jihadi media outlets in particular - have not always been as active as they could have been, much of the invaluable information which comes from the Russian-speaking brothers is never translated, hence many Muslims today remain quite ignorant about the situation of their brothers in the Caucasus. Hence your brothers at Ansar al-Mujahideen English Forum are pleased to announce the beginning of this new campaign in support of the Islamic Emirate of the Caucasus.

:: Ansar al-Mujahideen English Forum - Campaign in Support of the Caucasus Emirate ::

In the name of Allah, the Most Kind, the Most Merciful.

Allah, the Exalted, says in the Noble Quran:

"Fight them, and Allah will punish them by your hands, cover them with shame, help you (to victory) over them, heal the breasts of Believers, and still the indignation of their hearts" [At-Tawbah: 14-15]

And He, Glorified and Exalted, also says:

"O ye who believe! Fight those of the Disbelievers who are near to you, and let them find harshness in you, and know that Allah is with those who keep their duty (unto Him)" [At-Tawbah: 123]

As the Islamic Ummah marks the beginning of the new Islamic year, your brothers at Ansar al-Mujahideen English Forum are pleased to announce the beginning of a new campaign, in support of the Islamic Emirate of the Caucasus.

The Islamic Emirate which seeks to rule the entire North Caucasus according to the Quran and the Sunnah.

The Islamic Emirate which seeks to eliminate Disbelief, and expel the Disbelievers and their lackeys from the North Caucasus entirely.

The Islamic Emirate whose declaration warmed the hearts of the Believers - and struck fear into the hearts of the Disbelievers - across the globe.

The Islamic Emirate which consists of many sincere Mujahideen who have been waging Jihad in the path of Allah continuously for more than fifteen years now.

The Islamic Emirate whose martyrs number in the tens of thousands, and whose wounded and displaced number in the hundreds of thousands.

The Islamic Emirate which is constantly increasing the number of fighters under its banner, as well as the territory it is able to operate in.

The Islamic Emirate which has united thousands of Mujahideen from numerous different national, ethnic and linguistic groups under one Amir - Dokka Abu Uthman - may Allah protect him.

Since the Crusaders launched their brutal war of terror on Afghanistan in October 2001 and Iraq in March 2003 the eyes of the Ummah have moved away from Chechnya and the Caucasus, who have continued to suffer from an assault which at least equals the brutality of the ones launched on Iraq and Afghanistan.

In fact, while the Crusader occupation of Iraq and Afghanistan has now lasted for nearly a decade, the Russian occupation of the Caucasus has lasted over 200 years.

It was during the 19th century that the North Caucasus first rallied under the banner of Islam and Jihad against the Russian Disbelievers.

But when we return to the present we find the Ummah has forgotten this history of Jihad and indeed, seems to have virtually forgotten about large parts of the North Caucasus altogether, and the crimes of the Russians against the Muslim brothers there.

And so, following the Crusader invasion of Afghanistan and Iraq, the number of Muhajireen waging Jihad in the Caucasus decreased, as the battlefields of Iraq and Afghanistan were closer, and easier to reach.

The flow of zakat from the pious Muslim masses also switched to these new directions, and away from the Caucasus.

Even the dua of the Believers seemed to be turned away from the Caucasus, and towards other, more visible, calamities which befell the Ummah.

While the eyes of the world turned towards Lebanon and Gaza when they were subjected to vicious assaults from the Zionist entity, the same attention is not paid to the equally vicious Russian assaults on the Caucasus, which continue unabated to this very day.

The Muslim media outlets in general - and the Jihadi media outlets in particular - have not always been as active as they could have been, much of the invaluable information which comes from the Russian-speaking brothers is never translated, hence many Muslims today remain quite ignorant about the situation of their brothers in the Caucasus.

Hence we find that there are still two common misconceptions about the blessed Jihad in the North Caucasus: firstly that the Russian occupation and the Jihadi resistance against it only exists in Chechnya, and secondly that it is a 'war of national liberation', rather than Jihad for the sake of Allah.

While it is true that during the nineties the Russian war machine was directed primarily at Chechnya - few cities on earth have ever been subjected to an assault as brutal or prolonged than what the Russians poured down on the people of Grozny - this is no longer the case at all.

When the Russians invaded Chechnya in December 1994 and then again in October 1999 many of their brothers from the other parts of the Caucasus rushed to join the Jihad in Chechnya. They held no allegiance to Chechnya - but only to Islam!

Many of the Mujahideen now inflicting painful blows on the Russians and their lackeys in Ingushetia, Dagestan and KBK got their first taste of Jihad in Chechnya.

Many of these brothers have since returned to their homelands and established units of Mujahideen, and we find nowadays the Russians are attacked at least as often (if not more) in Dagestan, Ingushetia and KBK as they are in Chechnya.

And what better evidence that this is not a war of national liberation, but instead a blessed Jihad than the fact that the disparate groups of the North Caucasus, from a wide variety of different national, ethnic and linguistic backgrounds have all united under one banner, one Amir, and seek to create one united Islamic Emirate??

As Allah, Glorified and Exalted, says:

"And fight the polytheists all together as they fight you all together" [At-Tawbah: 36]

And what the future holds will be even better, with the permission of Allah, for the example of the brothers of the Islamic Emirate has inspired all of the Muslim people of the region. The fire of Jihad has been and shows signs of spreading far outside the Caucasus, in Muslim regions such as Bashkiria and Tatarstan in central Russia. This is the direct result of the 'inspiration' provided by the Islamic Emirate of the Caucasus.

Amir Dokka Abu Uthman, may Allah protect him, has offered his advice and support to all of the Muslims in Russia, and the future for the blessed Jihad looks very bright indeed.

Hence your brothers at Ansar al-Mujahideen English Forum are pleased to announce the beginning of this new campaign in support of the Islamic Emirate of the Caucasus.

We hope, with the aid of Allah, to greatly increase the awareness of the Muslim masses of the situation of the Muslims and Mujahideen in the North Caucasus, not just in Chechnya, but in Dagestan, Ingushetia, Kabarda, Balkaria and Karachay and all the Islamic lands of the North Caucasus.

We will translate as much material as possible into English, and we hope that other individuals and organisations will then translate the material into other languages commonly spoken by the Muslims.

We ask Allah to make this year a year of victory and conquest for the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate of the Caucasus.

We ask Allah to make this year a year of humiliation and defeat for the enemies of the Islamic Emirate of the Caucasus.

We ask Allah to make this year a year of mending ties and purifying the ranks for the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate of the Caucasus.

We ask Allah to make this year a year of constant discord and increasing enmity for the enemies of the Islamic Emirate of the Caucasus.

We ask Allah to produce a new generation of scholars to take place of Sheikh Abu Omar al-Sayf, Amir Sayfullah and Sheikh Said Abu Sa'ad, may Allah have mercy on them.

And our final prayer is that all praise be to Allah, the Lord of the Worlds.
